

Conveyancing Practice in Scotland - formerly Handbook of Conveyancing Practice in Scotland - is a popular step-by-step guide that takes the reader through the various stages of an ordinary conveyance in chronological order. The book sets out the correct procedure to be followed, reproducing letters and forms where appropriate and highlighting potential problems, with suggestions on how best to avoid them. This sixth edition is thoroughly updated to take account of developments in Scottish case law, legislation, and practice, and has been completely revised and restructured to bring it into line with new practical diploma.
