

Rilynne Evans was just beginning to adjust to her new life in Addison Valley when tragedy struck. Along with her new partner, Detective Todd Matthews, she found herself working against the clock in search of the killer who claimed the life of one of their own. Before she was able to make any headway in the case, a horror from her past comes back to haunt her, leaving her special skill affected. She is forced to rely on her ability as a profiler to track down the murderer before it is too late.
