

This exciting new CD-ROM from Longman Publishers offers students the best available instruction in visual rhetoric and an abundance of engaging activities so they can apply what they've learned. The CD is especially helpful for students because it groups images around familiar themes and teaches analysis using basic rhetorical concepts like audience, author, message, and medium. Real Visual is unique in that it not only demonstrates how to analyze visuals but also offers step-by-step guidelines for writing about visuals and composing with them. The activities in Real Visual are accompanied by abundant direction and advice, making them easy to understand and easily assignable. Available at no additional cost when ordered packaged with most Longman composition textbooks!
