

Ava, the Financial Angel, will teach young children about money in simple terms. Kids from ages four to eleven will learn about saving, spending, giving, debit cards and credit cards. Written by a 9-year-old and illustrated by a 15-year-old, this little book inspires on many levels! What a charming introduction to economics for kids! Ava Kofkes book literally has the power to begin steering youngsters toward a lifetime of financial literacy. Families, schools and libraries should all be adding this title to the early-childhood section this year! - Marie-Claire Moreau, author of Suddenly Homeschooling This book gives kids a wonderful introduction to money so they can make wiser decisions throughout their lives. The Financial Angel comes with my highest recommendation. - Jeff Botch, Friday Night Books
